GENERAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE BUSINESS

Three Year History

The Corporation is a diversified wealth management firm and one of Canada's largest independent investment management companies. Over the last three years CI has continued to execute on its strategy to be one of Canada's largest independent investment fund companies. CI has invested in key aspects of the business to drive further growth and build on our competitive advantages. As a result, CI has been able to benefit from the continued resurgence of investor confidence over the past three years, with assets under management increasing 36% from $76 billion to approximately $103 billion at December 31, 2014 and assets under administration at CI's subsidiary AWM increasing over 28% to $29.7 billion.

CI's success over the past three years is due in large part to the scale and diversity of its product line-up and the strength of its portfolio management teams. As the industry has become increasingly competitive, CI has responded by committing resources to those areas that are critical to our growth. CI has recruited top-ranked portfolio management talent to ensure that it can offer a comprehensive range of investment approaches and expertise in specific areas giving our clients a wide choice of styles and products all within the CI brand.

DESCRIPTION OF THE BUSINESS

General

CI is a diversified wealth management firm and one of Canada’s largest independent investment fund companies. The principal business of CI is the management, marketing, distribution and administration of mutual funds, segregated funds, structured products and other fee-earning investment products for Canadian investors. The Corporation’s business is carried on through two business segments, Asset Management through its subsidiary CI Investments and Asset Administration, through its subsidiary AWM.

The Asset Management segment provides the majority of CI’s income and derives its revenues principally from the fees earned on the management of several families of mutual, segregated, pooled and closed-end funds, structured products and discretionary accounts. The Asset Administration segment derives its revenues principally from commissions and fees earned on the sale of mutual funds and other financial products, and ongoing service to clients and capital market activities.

CI Investments is an investment fund management company engaged in the business of sponsoring, managing, distributing and administering investment funds in Canada. These products are distributed primarily through brokers, independent financial planners and insurance advisors, including AWM financial advisors.

AWM’s subsidiaries include financial services distribution companies engaged in the business of providing financial planning, investment advice, wealth management, estate and succession planning and insurance services.

As at December 31, 2014, CI Investments managed approximately 200 funds and 11 closed-end investment funds or limited partnerships which are sold under various fund family names including Black Creek Funds, Cambridge Funds, CI Funds, CI Guaranteed Retirement Cash Flow Series, CI Hedge Funds, CI LifeCycle Portfolios, Harbour Funds, Portfolio Series, Portfolio Select Series, United Funds, Signature Funds, Synergy Funds and Marret Funds. All the CI funds are collectively hereafter referred to as the “Managed Funds”. CI Investments also manages or administers approximately 440 segregated funds.

At December 31, 2014, CI Investments had $102.9 billion assets under management. According to information available through The Investment Funds Institute of Canada, as at December 31, 2014, CI Investments was the second largest independent (not owned by a chartered bank, insurance company or major trust company) mutual fund group in Canada in terms of assets under management.

As at December 31, 2014, AWM, through its subsidiaries Assante Capital Management Ltd., Assante Financial Management Ltd. and Assante Estate and Insurance Services Inc., administered approximately $30 billion in mutual funds, stocks, bonds, GIC's, insurance products and other investments for its clients.

CI's financial results are driven primarily by the level of its assets under management, which are in turn driven by the returns earned by its funds and the net sales of the funds. As at December 31, 2014, the CI Group, had approximately $133 billion in fee-earning assets and the number of unitholder accounts under management of CI Investments exceeded 2.2 million.

Asset Management Segment

Summary

The Asset Management segment is carried on by CI Investments. CI Investments offers the Managed Funds primarily through investment dealers, mutual fund dealers, insurance advisors, and AWM financial advisors in all jurisdictions in Canada. Financial information regarding the Asset Management segment is provided in the Corporation's annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 and related Management's Discussion and Analysis, which are available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

Products and Services

Managed Funds

As at December 31, 2014, CI Investments managed over 200 Managed Funds which are sold under various fund family names including Black Creek Funds, Cambridge Funds, CI Funds, CI Guaranteed Retirement Cash Flow Series, CI Hedge Funds, CI LifeCycle Portfolios, Harbour Funds, Portfolio Series, Portfolio Select Series, United Funds, Signature Funds, Synergy Funds and Marret Funds. The Managed Funds are sold or available for sale in all provinces and territories of Canada. CI Investments also manages or administers approximately 440 segregated funds.

The CI Group offers Canadian investors a wide range of Canadian and international investment products through a network of investment dealers, mutual fund dealers, and insurance agents, which include AWM financial advisors. A vast majority of the Managed Funds are managed by four separate groups of in-house portfolio managers who are all employees of CI Investments. Certain other Managed Funds are managed by third-party investment advisory firms, pursuant to sub-advisory agreements. All of the portfolio managers are supported by a team of marketing, administrative and technical specialists. The diversity of the Managed Funds allows CI to take advantage of the expected continued growth in the Canadian investment fund industry. The CI Group offers investors what management believes to be the broadest selection of investment funds in the Canadian mutual fund industry.

Management of the Managed Funds

CI Investments is a promoter and manager of all of the Managed Funds. As manager, CI Investments provides all of the management services required by the Managed Funds including managing or arranging for the management of investment portfolios, marketing of the Managed Funds, keeping of securityholder records and accounts, reporting to securityholders and processing transactions relating to the purchase, transfer and redemption of securities of Managed Funds.

CI Investments has entered into a management agreement with each of the Managed Funds. For the management and administrative services provided to the Managed Funds, CI Investments is generally paid a fee based on the average daily net asset value of each of the Managed Funds. The net asset value of a Managed Fund depends primarily on its level of net sales and the market value of its portfolio investments. The management fees paid to CI Investments are comparable to other management fees charged in the Canadian investment fund industry.

CI Investments bears all of the operating expenses of the open-end mutual funds managed by CI Investments (other than certain taxes, borrowing costs, new governmental fees and forward contract costs) in return for fixed annual administration fees. In general, each Managed Fund is responsible for its own administrative and operating expenses including, without limitation, audit and legal fees, registry and transfer agency fees, custodian fees, portfolio and investment costs, expenses relating to communication with securityholders, all costs imposed by statute or regulation, and applicable Goods and Services Tax and Harmonized Sales Tax, where applicable.

Portfolio Managers

CI Investments currently uses in-house and third-party investment managers to provide investment advice regarding the investment portfolios of the Managed Funds. Pursuant to investment advisor agreements between CI Investments and certain investment management firms, CI Investments has retained third-party investment management firms to provide advice regarding the investment portfolios of certain Managed Funds. In general, CI Investments pays third-party investment management firms an annual fee equal to a percentage of the net asset value of the Managed Funds. Generally, these rates are reduced as the net asset value exceeds certain specified levels.

Distribution and Marketing of the Managed Funds

Like other asset management companies not affiliated with financial institutions, CI Investments relies on investment dealers and mutual fund dealers for the sale of securities of the Managed Funds. Individual variable annuity contracts and variable annuity policies providing for approximately 440 segregated funds including the CI Guaranteed Investment Funds and Sun*Wise* Segregated Funds are sold through licensed life insurance agents.

The management of CI believes that the following factors are responsible for increasing and retaining assets in the Managed Funds under the management of CI Investments: diversity of products offered by the CI Group; experience and acknowledged success of the investment managers of the Managed Funds; service levels provided to the dealer and the investor; and performance of the Managed Funds. CI

Investments focuses on service and assistance to dealers and agents who are selling the Managed Funds, including providing materials to communicate the important features of the Managed Funds to investors and providing access to the investment managers.

CI Investments pays trailer fees to assist dealers in providing ongoing service to clients. These fees are payable to dealers in respect of their sales representatives who have client assets in qualifying Managed Funds throughout a calendar month. Payment is made either monthly or quarterly and is equal to a percentage of the total client assets of such sales representatives throughout the month.

CI Investments has a program to spend a certain amount to assist dealers and their representatives in marketing the Managed Funds. This program is subject to regulatory requirements and may be discontinued or modified at any time.

Sales Charges Relating to the Distribution of the Managed Funds

Investors may choose to purchase securities of the Managed Funds under the deferred sales charge method or under the initial sales commission method.

In general, if the investor purchases under the deferred sales charge method, no initial commission is paid, the entire investment is invested in securities and, upon redemption within seven years of purchase, a redemption fee will be deducted from the proceeds of redemption. On redemption, the redemption fee is calculated as a percentage of the net asset value at the time of the issue of the securities, which percentage decreases, for the standard deferred sales charge option, over a seven year period from 5.5% in the first year to nil at the end of the period, and for the low-load sales charge option, over a three-year period from 3.0% in the first year to nil at the end of the period. The redemption fee will be deferred in respect of redemptions of securities of a Managed Fund up to a maximum established by CI Investments from time to time.

In general, if the investor purchases securities of the Managed Funds under the initial sales commission method, a sales commission is paid at the time of purchase and no commission is charged at the time of redemption. For purchases of securities of the Managed Funds under the initial sales commission method, the commission is negotiable between the dealer and the investor, with the maximum generally ranging from 1% to 5%. No fees or charges are otherwise deducted by the Managed Funds on redemption except for applicable short-term trading fees and in the case of a registered plan or on a transfer to other Managed Funds.

Specialized Skill and Knowledge

CI Investments has highly skilled and experienced employees necessary to meet the challenges of the evolving asset management industry. CI Investments has the expertise to continue to meet the investment needs of its clients, develop new products, increase market share penetration through targeting of knowledgeable, successful investment dealers, mutual fund dealers and life insurance agents and other alternative distribution channels, and enhance investor awareness. CI Investments' objective is to continue to offer a wide range of investment products that are managed by a diversified group of investment advisors and build on its strength in both international and domestic equity fund products. CI

Investments' experienced marketing teams have been instrumental in enabling CI Investments to achieve market share growth through the investment dealer and mutual fund dealer network and life insurance agents.

To handle future growth, CI will continue, as appropriate, to upgrade its advanced information systems and increase internal training and development, all with the objective of ensuring that it provides accurate and timely service to registered dealers and agents selling CI Investments' products and to investors. As a result of its investment in computer facilities and its efficient approach to service and marketing, CI believes that CI Investments will not have to increase their personnel in the same proportion as the growth in assets of the Managed Funds under their management.

Competitive Conditions

The Canadian mutual fund industry has grown from $3.6 billion to $1.1 trillion of mutual fund assets during the period from December 1980 to December 2014 (according to The Investment Funds Institute of Canada).

The long-term growth in the mutual fund industry is attributable to many factors including a decline in inflation, lower interest rates and increased marketing of mutual funds. Government policies, at both the federal and provincial levels, also are contributing significantly to this growth by encouraging Canadians to save for retirement by increasing contribution levels.

The growth in the mutual fund industry has resulted in increased competition. Since the entrance of the banks and trust companies into the mutual fund industry in the late 1980s, competition from financial institutions has increased significantly. With the entrance of the banks and trust companies and, more recently, insurance companies, the market has developed into two distinct segments: mutual fund groups owned by chartered banks, insurance companies and major trust companies; and the independent mutual fund groups. According to data from The Investment Funds Institute of Canada, as at December 31, 2014, mutual fund companies owned by chartered banks, insurance companies or major trust companies had a combined market share of approximately 50% all mutual fund assets. Several foreign mutual fund groups also currently operate in Canada. The addition of well capitalized foreign mutual fund groups in the Canadian mutual fund industry has increased competition even further. A discussion on competitive conditions affecting CI also appears under the heading "Risk Management – Competition" in the Management's Discussion and Analysis for the year ended December 31, 2014, available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

There has been significant consolidation among Canadian mutual fund management companies, driven by a desire to achieve economies of scale in marketing, distribution and administration. The consequences of this consolidation include:

- (a) a decline in the number of mutual fund and institutional asset management companies listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX");
- (b) a segmentation of the industry into two distinct parts: mutual fund management groups owned in whole or in part by chartered banks, insurance companies, major trust companies or other large domestic and foreign groups, and independent mutual fund management companies; and

- (c) an increasing concentration of the larger industry participants in terms of mutual fund assets under management. As at December 31, 2014, the 10 largest Canadian mutual fund management companies controlled approximately 74% of the total industry mutual fund assets under management.

The mutual fund industry is facing public and regulatory pressure to lower costs and improve the transparency of fees paid by investors. In response, in August 2005, the CI Group obtained the approval of securityholders of the open-end mutual funds managed by CI Investments to permit CI Investments to bear all of the operating expenses of those funds (other than certain taxes, borrowing costs, new governmental fees and forward contract costs) in return for fixed annual administration fees. As a result of this change, the management expense ratio (or MER) for the affected funds has become relatively fixed and predictable.

The following table sets forth the aggregate net asset value for the Canadian mutual fund industry and CI Investments' aggregate relative position in the Canadian mutual fund industry.

Mutual Fund Assets
As at December 31, 2014
(in billions of dollars except percentages)

Total Canadian mutual fund industry ⁽¹⁾	$1,141
CI Investments' Managed Funds	$103
CI Investments' total assets under management as an aggregate % of total industry	9.0%

Notes:

- (1) Source: The Investment Funds Institute of Canada and CI Financial.

In Canada, the investment management industry, and in particular the mutual fund segment, is a highly-regulated industry. Applicable securities legislation imposes restrictions on, among other things, incentives that may be offered to dealers and the forms of advertising which may be used by mutual fund managers, and disclosure and reporting requirements on the Managed Funds. A discussion on regulatory and legal risks affecting CI appears under the heading "Risk Management – Regulatory and Legal Risk" in the Management's Discussion and Analysis for the year ended December 31, 2014, available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

New Products

In the year ended December 31, 2014, CI Investments introduced the following new funds: Cambridge Growth Companies Corporate Class, Cambridge U.S. Dividend Registered Fund, Marret High Yield Bond Fund, Marret Short Duration High Yield Fund, Marret Strategic Yield Fund, CI Investment Grade Bond Fund, and CI G5|20i series.

Intangible Properties

CI Investments owns a number of registered and unregistered trade-marks such as CI Investments, CI Funds, Synergy Funds, Harbour Funds, Signature Funds, United Pools, Optima Strategy, and Cambridge. These trade-marks are important elements in differentiating the Managed Funds from CI Investments' competitors and marketing the Managed Funds to clients and advisors.

Asset Administration Segment

Summary

The Asset Administration segment, carried on by AWM and its subsidiaries and CI Private Counsel LP ("CIPC"), offers clients in Canada a wide range of products and services, which encompass a multidisciplinary approach to financial planning, investment advice, wealth management, estate and succession planning and insurance services. Financial information regarding the Asset Administration segment is provided in the Corporation's annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 and related Management's Discussion and Analysis, which are available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com. Results of CIPC are not included as part of the Assets Administration segment for financial reporting purposes.

Products and Services

The principal businesses of AWM and its subsidiaries and CIPC are the provision of products and services tailored to meet the specific objectives and the financial planning and financial management needs of their clients. These products and services are developed and/or distributed through AWM and its subsidiaries, which include securities dealers, mutual fund dealers and insurance agents.

AWM's affiliates provide a wide range of products and services, including portfolio management, investment advisory services, distribution of securities (including mutual funds), insurance products and banking services and wealth management, including financial, tax and estate planning services.

AWM's unique distribution strategy and operating platform distinguish it in its sector. Its distribution network provides AWM direct access to experienced advisors with an established and growing base of clients. Through these advisors, many of those clients are electing to delegate responsibility for portfolio management, manager selection and monitoring, and wealth management to AWM's core group of investment and wealth management professionals.

AWM's operating platform is designed to allow the advisor to work with a team of professionals to provide best-in-class advice and one-stop solutions for many of the increasingly complicated and sophisticated needs of its clients.

AWM's products and services are built on a foundation of some combination of portfolio management, investment advice, distribution of securities, insurance products, and banking products and financial, tax, succession, wealth and estate planning. The principal markets for AWM's products and services are affluent and high net-worth individuals residing in Canada.

CIPC provides discretionary investment counsel services on a referral basis through its United Financial division and directly to investors through its Stonegate Private Counsel division.

Specialized Skill and Knowledge

AWM (including CIPC) has highly-skilled and experienced advisors and employees necessary to meet the challenges of the evolving investment advisory industry. AWM believes it has the expertise to continue to meet the specific objectives and the financial planning and financial management needs of its clients, to increase market share penetration through targeting mass affluent and affluent segments of the Canadian investor landscape, and to enhance investor understanding of the elements necessary to provide financial well-being. AWM's objective is to continue to offer a complete suite of wealth management services to its clients to assist them in achieving their financial goals.

To handle future growth, AWM will continue, as appropriate, to upgrade its advanced information systems and increase training and development for its advisors and employees, as well as continuing to enhance its compliance infrastructure to promote stronger governance, all with the objective of ensuring that it provides accurate and timely service to its advisors and clients.

Competitive Conditions

The financial services industry is very competitive with many institutions and companies such as banks, trust companies, insurance companies, portfolio managers, security brokerage companies and mutual fund dealers all competing for the business of a relatively fixed number of affluent clients. In addition, foreign-based mutual fund companies and banks have also established operations in Canada. The financial services industry in Canada has also moved toward offering comprehensive fee-based investment management services for clients.

AWM believes that it is well-positioned in terms of its competitors in the marketplace. While there is a larger number of organizations providing financial advisory and financial management services or manufacturing investment products, very few of them are similar to AWM in providing financial product manufacturing integrated with the delivery of a full menu of products and services (including proprietary products) through their own distribution network. The operation of a unified financial advisory business in Canada is designed to provide synergies and economies of scale for AWM's wealth management programs and financial advisor network. A discussion on competitive conditions affecting AWM also appears under the heading "Risk Management – Competition" in the Management's Discussion and Analysis for the year ended December 31, 2014, available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

Intangible Properties

AWM, through CI Investments, owns certain registered and unregistered trade-marks such as Assante and Assante Wealth Management. These trade-marks are important elements in differentiating AWM's services from those offered by its competitors.

Cycles

Generally, revenues are consistent throughout the year, with a slight increase in the first quarter due to increased investment activity during the Canadian RRSP season.

Employees

As at December 31, 2014, 1,490 people were employed by the CI Group.

RISK MANAGEMENT

There is risk inherent in the conduct of a wealth management business. Some factors which introduce or exacerbate risk are within the control of management and others are, by their nature, outside of direct control but must still be managed. Effective risk management is a key component to achieving CI's business objectives. It is an on-going process involving the Board of Directors, management and other personnel. Management has developed an enterprise wide approach to risk management that involves executives in each core business unit and operating area of CI. These executives identify and evaluate risks, applying both a quantitative and a qualitative analysis and then assess the likelihood of occurrence of a particular risk event. They then identify mitigating factors or strategies and a course for implementing mitigation procedures to bring each risk event to an acceptable risk level.

A discussion of risks affecting CI appears under the heading "Risk Management" in the Management's Discussion and Analysis for the year ended December 31, 2014 and is incorporated by reference and available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STRUCTURE

The following is a brief summary of the Corporation's authorized share capital and its outstanding debt securities. The authorized share capital is established in the Corporation's articles of incorporation, as amended. This summary may not be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, CI's articles of incorporation, as amended, and to the CII Trust Indenture (as defined below) pursuant to which the CII Debentures are created and outstanding.

The Corporation's authorized share capital consists of an unlimited number of Common Shares and an unlimited number of preference shares, issuable in series. As at February 28, 2015 there were 282,369,687 Common Shares issued and outstanding. No preference shares have been issued by the Corporation.

Common Shares

Holders of Common Shares are entitled to one vote per share at meetings of shareholders of the Corporation, to receive dividends if, as and when declared by the Board (subject to the rights of shares, if any, having priority over the Common Shares) and to receive pro rata the remaining property and assets of the Corporation upon its dissolution or winding up, subject to the rights of shares, if any, having priority over the Common Shares.

Preference Shares

Each series of preference shares shall consist of such number of shares and have such rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions as may be determined by the Board prior to the issuance thereof. Holders of preference shares, except as required by law or as provided in the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions of a particular series, will not be entitled to vote at meetings of shareholders of the Corporation. With respect to the payment of dividends and distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the preference shares of each series shall rank on a parity with the preference shares of every other series and are entitled to preference over the Common Shares and any other shares ranking junior to the preference shares from time to time and may also be given such other preferences over the Common Shares and any other shares ranking junior to the preference shares as may be determined at the time of creation of such series.

CII Debentures

On December 13, 2010, CI Investments completed an offering of $300 million principal amount of debentures due December 14, 2016 (“CII Debentures”). It was the first public offering by CI Investments. The offering was made on an agency basis under a CI Investments debt shelf prospectus dated December 7, 2010. Interest on the CII Debentures is paid semi-annually in arrears on December 13 and June 13 in each year commencing June 13, 2011 at a rate of 3.94% per annum until December 13, 2015 when the rate of interest will change to a floating rate based on the three-month bankers’ acceptance rate. The CII Debentures were created and issued under a trust agreement made as of December 13, 2010 between the CI Investments and Computershare Trust Company of Canada (the “CII Trust Indenture”)

The CII Debentures are redeemable by CI Investments, at its option in whole or in part, from time to time at a redemption price which is equal to the greater of the Government of Canada Yield, plus 36 basis points (0.36%). The Government of Canada Yield is the average of the mid-market yields to maturity, assuming semi-annual compounding, which an issue of non-callable Government of Canada bonds would produce, if issued at par on such date, in Canadian dollars in Canada, with a term to maturity equal to the remaining term to the scheduled maturity date of the applicable CII Debentures.

If a Change of Control Triggering Event occurs, CI Investments will be required to make an offer to repurchase the CII Debentures at a price payable in cash equal to 101% of the outstanding principal amount of the CII Debentures together with accrued and unpaid interest, to the date of purchase. A Change of Control Triggering Event occurs if there is both a Change of Control of CI and a Rating Event. A Change of Control occurs if there is a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of CI Investments or CI or the acquisition of beneficial ownership of more than 50% of the votes attached to the outstanding Common Shares. A Rating Event occurs if, following a Change of Control or announcement of a Change of Control, the rating of the CII Debentures is lowered to below investment grade rating (below BBB - for S&P and BBB (low) for DBRS) by each of the rating agencies who rate the CII Debentures, if there are two or less than two such agencies, and by two out of three of the agencies, if the CII Debentures are rated by three agencies.

The CII Debentures are fully and unconditionally guaranteed by the Corporation and must be guaranteed by any other subsidiary of CI which is a Material Subsidiary as that term is defined in the CII Trust Indenture. Reference is made to the CII Trust Indenture for a full description of the terms of the CII Debentures. The CII Trust Indenture is filed on SEDAR.

Ratings

CII has received an issuer rating of A (low) from DBRS Limited (“DBRS”) and the CII Debentures are rated A (low) with a “Stable” trend by DBRS. The “A (low)” rating assigned to the CII Debentures represents the third highest of the ten rating categories available from DBRS for long-term debt. Under the DBRS system, debt securities rated A (low) are of satisfactory credit quality and protection of interest and principal is considered substantial. While this is a favourable rating, entities in the A (low) category are considered to be more susceptible to adverse economic conditions and have greater cyclical tendencies than higher-rated companies. A reference to “high” or “low” reflects the relative strength within the rating category, while the absence of either a “high” or “low” designation indicates the rating is placed in the middle category. According to DBRS, the “Stable” trend helps give investors an understanding of DBRS’s opinion regarding the outlook for the rating.

The Corporation and CII have each received a corporate credit rating from Standard and Poor’s (“S&P”) of A- with a stable outlook. In addition, the CII Debentures are rated A- with a “Stable” outlook by S&P. The “A-” rating is the third highest of the ten major rating categories for long-term debt and indicates S&P’s view that each of CI’s and CI Investments’ capacity to meet its financial commitment on the obligations is strong, but the obligations are somewhat susceptible to adverse effects of changes in circumstances and economic conditions than obligations in higher rated categories. S&P uses “+” or “-” designations to indicate the relative standing of securities within a particular ratings category. According to S&P, the “Stable” rating outlook means that the rating is not likely to change over the intermediate term.

CI paid customary rating fees to DBRS and S&P in connection with the ratings. Other than in the ordinary course of customary ratings fees as aforesaid, in the past two years, CI did not make any payments to either DBRS or S&P in respect of any other services provided by either DBRS or S&P to CI.

Credit ratings are intended to provide investors with an independent assessment of the credit quality of an issue or issuer of securities and do not speak to the suitability of particular securities for any particular investor. A security rating is therefore not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the rating agency.

Penalties and Sanctions

To the knowledge of CI, none of the directors or executive officers of CI nor any personal holding company owned or controlled by any of them (i) has been subject to any penalties or sanctions imposed by a court relating to securities legislation or by a securities regulatory authority or has entered into a settlement agreement with a securities regulatory authority, or (ii) has been subject to any other penalties or sanctions imposed by a court or regulatory body that would likely be considered important to a reasonable investor in making an investment decision.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS AND REGULATORY ACTIONS

Legal Proceedings

CI Investments is a party to two class action proceedings brought by investors in CI mutual funds, in each case asking for unspecified damages resulting from CI Investments’ alleged failure to implement measures to fully protect the funds’ investors against costs of frequent trading activity. These proceedings were instituted in the provinces of Ontario and Quebec in 2004. The Quebec class action was authorized on September 17, 2010. On December 12, 2013, the Supreme Court of Canada denied an appeal by CI Investments in the Ontario class action. The decision is not a finding of liability against CI Investments, but simply allows the Ontario class action against CI Investments and one other mutual fund company to proceed. CI Investments intends to vigorously defend itself in the both class actions on the basis that, among other things, the affected investors in its funds were fully compensated by CI Investments through a compensation program that was established in 2004 in a settlement agreement with the Ontario Securities Commission.

Various other legal proceedings are pending that challenge certain of our practices or actions. We consider that the aggregate liability resulting from these other proceedings will not be material to our financial position or results of operations.

TRANSFER AGENT AND REGISTRAR

Computershare Investor Services Inc. acts as Transfer Agent and Registrar for the Common Shares and maintains registers of transfers of the Common Shares in Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver.

MATERIAL CONTRACTS

The following contracts can reasonably be regarded as material to CI:

- (b) The revolving credit facility between CI and the Toronto-Dominion Bank and Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce dated March 17, 2011 which has been renewed and extended and amended so that it is now a $250 million credit facility with a revolving period that extends to March 11, 2016.
